Educazione Civica: Dopo aver letto e spiegato la tragedia di Shakespeare “Romeo and Juliet” si sono presi in considerazione diversi aspetti dell’amore, dall’amore non corrisposto, all’amore tragico e pieno di ostacoli causati da differenze razziali, di genere, di religione, ideologiche e pregiudizi. Amore caratterizzato da matrimoni forzati o combinati: lettura di testi e ascolto di interviste per suscitare negli alunni idee che sono state espresse in forma di “debate”, dopo aver lavorato a piccoli gruppi per dare al docente la possibilità di valutare gli studenti. Nell’attività è stata di supporto anche la lettrice madrelingua.
